

Wind Offshore in Greece: New opportunities, challenges and prospects

Date: Friday 12 April 2019

Venue: Hotel Athens Hilton, Galaxy rooftop conference room

PROGRAM

10:00 Welcome remarks

Jørn Gjelstad, Ambassador of Norway.

10:15 Potential for offshore wind in Greece

Michalis Verroiopoulos, Secretary General of Energy, Ministry of Environment & Energy.

10:30 PANEL DISCUSSION Moderator Elisabeth Lothe, Deputy Head of Mission, Norwegian Embassy.

Offshore in Greece: Current situation and perspectives

Dionysios Papachristou, Director of Press & Public Relations, Regulatory Authority for Energy.

Why offshore wind in Greece

Panagiotis Ladakakos, President of the Hellenic Wind Energy Association.

Floating wind farms in the Aegean? The international law of the sea point of view

Angelos Syrigos, Assistant Professor, Panteion University.

Experiences with offshore wind, future plans in floating offshore wind

Arne Eik, Leading Business Developer, New Energy Solutions – Floating Offshore Wind, Equinor.

Q & A

12:15 Business Innovation Greece – EEA Grants for Greek companies within green industry, innovation, blue growth and ICT

Anne Lise Rognlidalen, Programme Director, Innovation Norway.

12:30 Networking lunch